It is also some cooler as far south as the Carolinas and Georgia. The pressure has fallen sharply in the States of the upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys, with a general rise in temperature and cloudy weather in the same sections. Rain is now falling at Kansas City, Mo., and light scattered showers have occured during the day throughout the Southwest and in the Gulf and Atlantic coast States. Light thunder storms are reported in Georgia and Mississippi. The weather is mostly clear to-night to the eastward of the Mississippi valley. High pressure prevails generally, being above the normal over all sections. But it is lowest over the Southwest, where the winds indicate a slight local disturbance.

A Timely Warning.

In a recent speech at Gibson, Richmond county, Judge Hudson, of Bennettsville, told the people that if necessary to prevent South Carolina negroes voting in the border counties of the Sixth Congressional district, as they did in 1896, five hundred of the South Carolina "Red Shirts" would go to Richmond county. They will go to other counties, too.

The relay race by the L. A. W. Cycle Club, to have been run yesterday afternoon on the shell road, was called off on account of the heaviness of the roads occasioned by the recent rains. STRONG RESOLUTIONS

By the Chamber of Commerce of Regarding the Political Situation.

MEETING HELD YESTERDAY.

Foremost Business Men of Wilmington Pronounce Present Conditions Unbearable and Declare Party in Power Incompetent.

The Wilmington Chamber of Commerce yesterday took a decided stand in regard to the political situation in the city and county, declaring that while the Chamber is sensible that its province is commercial and not political, and disclaiming any intention to enter the sphere of politics, they as citizens believe that good government and security to life and property are not possible under the present political negro-rule regime.

The meeting was largely attended and great enthusiasm and determination were manifested. The resolutions in full as adopted are as follows:

Be it Resolved by the Chamber of Commerce, That the political situation in this city and county is a menace to the peace and order of the community, in which property has no protection and life of the citizen no security; that the feeling of unrest and apprehension following upon an incompetent public service which, while it exacts tribute in taxes offers no immunity from danger to the property or person of the citizen, is detrimental to every business interest, arrests enterprise, hampers commerce and repels capital which might otherwise find investment in our midst. That such commercial stagnation and social disorder are the logical outcome of a condition which finds the control of government in the hands of corrupt and incompetent men, whose authority fails to inspire fear in the worst element of our population as it does to command the respect of our best citizens; that this lawless and wholly irresponsible element, fortified by the consciousness that the authorities are either impotent or unwilling to impose restraint upon them and protect life, property, convert liberty into license, perpetrate outrage on every hand, disturb the peace of the community and offer indignities to our white women which have culminated in instances of personal violence to them on our streets, and in an attack on the virtue of the womanhood of our Southland by the negro editor of the infamous Daily Record.

Resolved, That in view of these intolerable conditions, it is the sense of this meeting that it is the duty of every good citizen to exert his utmost influence and personal effort to effect results which will restore order, protect property and give that sense of security to our lives and our homes which obtains only in civilized communities.

Resolved, That this Chamber is sensible that its province is commercial and not political, and the intention or desire to enter the sphere of politics is distinctly disclaimed, but the conditions confronting us and calling for solution are commercial and social, and not political; and as citizens and business men, with the one desire to promote the prosperity, peace and happiness of the community, we declare to the world that these blessings are not possible under government by the present political regime, whose existence and power are predicated on the blind adherence of the negro element of our population, which, taken as a whole, with some worthy exceptions, are under the most absolute bondage and domination of a few designing men of the white race, who for selfish ends play upon their prejudices to array them against order and good government.

The meeting was presided over by President James H. Chadbourn, Jr., who was one of the first to spring to his feet in the unanimous rising vote on adoption of the resolutions. Mr. Chadbourn has up to now been a prominent Republican and was elected treasurer of New Hanover county by that party which office he now holds. He, however, yesterday declared himself in hearty sympathy with the resolutions and several of his most intimate friends say that he has signified his intention to vote a straight Democratic ticket at the approaching election.

The following well known business and professional men were in attendance upon the session of the Chamber and voted for the resolutions. First vice president, Walker Taylor; second vice president, W. E. Worth; secretary and treasurer, Jno. D. Cantwell; Mr. J. Allen Taylor, Capt. T. C. James, Mr. Hugh McRae, Mr. Sam'l Northrop, Mr. Geo. Harriss, Mr. George Harriss, Jr., Mr. S. H. Fishblate, P. B. Manning, Esq., Mr. John Williams, Mr. W. H. Northrop, Jr., Mr. W. R. Kenan, Mr. C. C. Covington, Col. Thomas Strange, Mr. H. K. Nash, Jr., Mr. R. W. Hicks, Mr. J. C. Stevenson, George Rountree, Esq., Mr. F. L. Huggins, Mr. M. W. Jacobi, Mr. Walter Parsley, Mr. George Holmes, Mr. J. H. Boatwright, Mr. Jno. S. Armstrong, Mr. F. H. Stedman, Mr. Pearsall, Mr. T. F. Bagley, Mr. J. B. Mercer, Mr. W. H. Northrop, Capt. R. N. Sweet, Mr. N. Jacobi, Col. F. W. Kerchner, Mr. T. W. Clawson and William J. Martin.

The resolutions were introduced by Mr. Samuel Northrop, who said that he was constrained to present them because he believed that the social and business interests of the city and county demanded that the Chamber take some action in regard to the matter. Mr. George Harriss moved the adoption, which as stated above was done by a unanimous rising vote.

During the preliminary discussion, Mr. T. F. Bagley read the letter published in yesterday's STAR from Mr. G. Fred Ansland, of Cambridge, Md., in which reference is made to the impressions he received while here some time ago prospecting with a view to settling a colony of Swedes and other Scandinavians in the county, as an evidence that strong measures should be adopted to bring about a change of political conditions. Mr. J. C. Stevenson heartily endorsed the resolutions, and thought that action should have been taken long before now. Pointed remarks advocating the adoption of the resolutions were also made by Mr. C. C. Covington, Mr. M. W. Jacobi, Mr. H. K. Nash, Mr. Hugh MacRae, P. B. Manning, Esq., and Mr. R. W. Hicks.

The only other matter which engaged the attention of the Chamber was a report from Mr. R. W. Hicks and Mr. T. F. Bagley, to the effect that they had failed as members of a special committee of fisheries to get a promised supply of fish with which to re-stock the lower Cape Fear, from the Fish Commission at Washington. The commissioner had totally failed to furnish the fish as he had promised and the whole thing had proven a farce. However, Mr. Hicks and Mr. Bagley both expressed confidence that when the season rolls around again they will be more successful.

The Chamber adjourned about 5 o'clock.

Mr. H. C. McQueen presided over the meeting as chairman and Mr. W. E. Worth served as secretary.

AT BURGAW TO-DAY.

Democratic Speaking and Barbecue Promises to be a Big Success.

Pender county will cover herself with glory to day. The arrangements for the speaking and barbecue to take place at Burgaw have been perfected and nothing is to prevent the affair from being a great success. Quite a large crowd will go up from Wilmington on the 9.35 train this morning, among them being a large delegation of Confederate Veterans of the New Hanover Camp and the Second Regiment Band in charge of the president, Mr. Jas. W. Monroe. A number of the veterans expect to go in uniform. A special rate of $1.10 has been secured for the round trip, and the schedule of the train is such that the meeting can be attended with very little, if any, inconvenience. While it is essentially a Pender county meeting, the attendance from adjoining counties will be large.

The speakers are some of the most prominent in the State, and this part of the programme will not be allowed to suffer.

JUSTICE M'GOWAN'S COURT.

Charles H. Hines and Carter Peamon Before This Court Yesterday.

Justice McGowan had two important cases for his consideration yesterday. Hines, the negro who is to be tried for several offences, one of which is for persistently resisting an officer, was up for a hearing. He plead guilty to the charge, and was committed in default of a bond of $100 for his appearance at the Criminal Court, which meets here next week. He is also to be tried before Justice Bunting on two other charges next Tuesday.

Carter Peamon was also before the court. It will be remembered that Peamon is the negro who acted so disgracefully at the registration place of the First Division of the First Ward last Saturday. In the absence of some important witnesses the case was continued until nine o'clock Monday morning, and he was placed under a bond of $100 for his appearance at that time. The warrant was served by Deputy Sellers.

L'ARIOSO TO RE-ORGANIZE.

Meeting to Be Held in the Parlors of the Orton Saturday Night.

L'Arioso German Club will meet in the parlors of The Orton to-morrow night to re-organize for the coming season. The election of officers will be the most important business to engage their attention.

The officers who served so efficiently during last season and contributed so much toward making this popular club what it is, one of the foremost social organizations of the city are:

President—Mr. R. B. Mason.
Vice President—Mr. E. Keith Calder.
Secretary and Treasurer—Mr. J. Van B. Metts.
Leader—Lieut. H. H. McIllhenny.
Governing Board—Mr. W. S. Johnson, Capt. Don. McRae, Mr. H. M. Chase and Sergeant Major T. W. Davis.

WHITE GOVERNMENT UNIONS

Hold Important Sessions and Transact Business of An Interesting Nature.

The White Government Unions of the Lower division of the Third ward and of the Second ward held important meetings last night; the former at the rooms of the Merchants' Association and the latter at headquarters in the old National Bank building. Both meetings were well attended, the Second ward union having the largest attendance since its formation. New members were enrolled by both unions in encouraging numbers. Several short speeches were made to the unions, which were well received and warmly applauded.

LOCAL DOTS.

— Register to-morrow.

— Delays are dangerous. Register to-morrow.

— Every employer of white men should ask his employes to register to-morrow.

— There were no cases for the Mayor yesterday, consequently no court was held.

— Two marriage licenses were issued yesterday by the Register of Deeds. One white, one colored.

— Employment was found yesterday for two people through the instrumentality of the Y. M. C. A. Employment Bureau.

— Kinston Free Press: "The Wilmington STAR is 31 years old. It is as vigorous, as bright and as able as any paper in the State."

— The regular, bona fide mail circulation of THE MORNING STAR is larger than the mail circulation of all other Wilmington Dailies combined.

— The Audit and Finance committee of the Board of County Commissioners held a meeting last night and audited the usual routine bills for September.

— Three-fourths of the unregistered white men in Wilmington can register to-morrow, just as conveniently as they can a week later. Will they do it?

— Mr. Thad F. Tyler, the contractor and builder, will move his office to-day from 110 Market street to the Front street market. He has fitted up excellent quarters in a front room up stairs.

— All business men and employers of labor are requested to attend a meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in the Merchant's Association rooms in the Seaboard Air Line building.

— Eyota Tribe, No. 5, Red Men, will have a pow-wow in their new wigwam to-night. This order has elegant headquarters in Concordia Hall, over the Bee Hive, on South Front street.

— Mr. W. T. Boyer, representing the Cleveland-Wilson Ministrel show, booked to appear here on the 12th, was here yesterday making preliminary arrangements for the coming of his troop of fun-makers.

— Judge Thomas H. Sutton, who has been in very feeble health for some time, has recovered sufficiently to go to Saratoga Springs, New York, and his physicians are now very hopeful of his permanent recovery.

— One of the upper shelves, upon which some crockery was placed in the grocery store of J. L. Croom & Co., gave way yesterday afternoon and fell to the floor, breaking a show case and a large amount of crockery.

— The campaign in this Congressional district grows hotter and hotter. But, bless your soul, Honey, just wait two weeks longer if you want to see it at white heat. By the way, don't forget to register to-morrow.

— Spirits turpentine again went above the thirty cent mark yesterday. The receipts of spirits turpentine were a little off, but those of other naval stores were a little heavy. There is no change in the cotton market and the receipts continue about the same.

— Remember that the remaining days for registration are Saturday, Oct. 8th, Saturday, Oct. 15th, and Saturday, Oct. 22nd, and that the hours are from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. Remember, too, that this is a brand-new registration for New Hanover county.

— If the Republicans attempt to colonize South Carolina negroes in this Congressional district for fraudulent registration and voting, as they did in 1896, there is going to be a row of very large proportions. The white men are determined that they will not be robbed of their rights.

— The leaders of the negro party who profess to believe that Office Hunter Dockery will be elected to Congress are not splitting their shirts in their rush to accept that thousand-dollar opportunity offered by the STAR. Not a single response has been made. The offer is still open.

— Hurrah for Rodolph Duffy, the gallant Democratic candidate for Solicitor in this judicial district. He met that political abortion Cyrus Thompson in joint debate at Warsaw yesterday and gave him a drubbing he will not soon forget. See special telegram elsewhere in the STAR.

— A Syrian was arraigned late yesterday afternoon before Justice Fowler charged with slapping a woman in the face. He was convicted of disorderly conduct on the street and committed to jail in default of a $10 fine and costs. The offence was committed on Dock street between Water and Front.

— A young man who reaches the age of twenty-one after the close of registration, and on or before the 8th of November, can register and vote on the day of election. Or, if any elector has been a resident of the State twelve months and of his county ninety days immediately preceding the day of election, he can register and vote on that day.

Butler Played Out.

A gentleman who came in on the C. F. & Y. V. train Wednesday night told a representative of the STAR that Rocky Mount Butler's meeting at Sanford was a dismal failure, the crowd, Democrats, Populists and negroes, being conservatively estimated at 150 to 200. When it comes to making Black Republicans out of honest Populists even Rocky Mount Butler must "hide his diminished head."

SUPERIOR COURT ADJOURNS.

Lockey Failed in His Last Attempt to Have Judges of Election Changed. Routine Business Transacted.

New Hanover Superior Court was adjourned for the term yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock. And W. S. O'B. Robinson, Judge presiding, will convene the Sampson county court next Monday morning.

One of the closing features of the court was an effort on the part of C. P. Lockey, Esq., and certain so-called Populist leaders to have Judge Robinson appoint several Populist judges in precincts where the Election Board had deferred appointments because no Populists could be found up to last Monday, when the Board met for that purpose.

Mr. Lockey presented a petition signed by Jno. R. Melton, who claims to be chairman of the Populist Executive Committee, and ten other parties. The judge heard the petition and told Mr. Lockey that he had only supervisory authority in the matter and that he could not take the matter out of the hands of Col. Taylor and other members of the Board unless they refused to act or appointed other than Populists. Col. Taylor made a statement that as soon as Populists could be found they would be appointed. Brooke Empie, Esq., also addressed the court in behalf of the Election Board. Judge Robinson told Mr. Lockey and his crowd that Col. Taylor's explanation as to his course was very satisfactory to him and he was sure he would do his duty in the premises. Thus the matter ended.

In the case of Navassa Guano Co., vs. McNair and Pearsall, sixty days was allowed for the defendants to file their answer.

The court was convened at 10 A. M. and took a recess at 1 P. M. until 5 o'clock. During the session the following routine business was transacted:

Judgment was issued in the case of Holmes & Waters vs. A. L. Koonce.

Receivers for the late Bank of New Hanover and the Interstate Building and Loan Association filed reports, and were granted certain allowances.

An alias summons was issued in the case of S. H. Fishblate vs. Wallenstein & Co.

An appeal was allowed in the case of D. N. Chadwick vs. H. B. C. Wentzensen.

A motion to amend the judgment in the case of B. F. King vs. Mechanic's Home Association was allowed.

Judgments were signed by the Judge in the cases of Roger Moore et al., commissioners, vs. F. W. Foster et al., ex-commissioners, requiring the defendants to pay the costs of the suit.

Judgment was entered against F. J. Dempsey, late county commissioner, for $200, being a forfeiture in favor of Nicholas Morris for having held two public offices of trust and profit—Commissioner and member of the Board of Education.

While the court was intended to be a two week's term, there was only a six days' term, the court having adjourned over last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

CONDITIONS NOT OVERDRAWN

Strong Resolutions Signed By Many Business Men Endorsing Negro-Domination Reports in State Papers.

After the Chamber of Commerce adjourned yesterday afternoon a special meeting was held upon which about the same company of leading citizens was in attendance and all signed resolutions which will be still more largely signed here and forwarded to Hon. F. W. Simmons, Chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee. The resolutions declare that the representations of the social and political conditions brought upon this community by the present Russell-Republican negro regime have not been overdrawn by the News & Observer, the Morning Post, the Charlotte Observer, the Wilmington STAR and the Messenger, And also call upon the white men of the West to come to the aid of the East in the overthrow of the negro rule and the restoration of good government. It was a strong document. It is understood simular action will be taken in Newbern and other Eastern cities.

School Books Stolen.

A sneak thief, negro boy, slipped into the back hall of Mrs. Tebie Watson's residence, No. 106 Red Cross street, about 6 o'clock yesterday evening and stole a strap of school books belonging to Mrs. Watson's daughter. The books are valued at about $7.50. One of the neighbors saw the boy going out the back way with the bundle and thought he had a right to them. The books were not missed until fifteen or twenty minutes after the theft was committed. The negro's name is not known, but his description is.

Was at Jacksonville.

Mr. W. F. Trogdon, representing Geo. Miller & Son Co., wholesale confectioners of Philadelphia, is registered at The Orton. Mr. Trogdon was at Jacksonville, Florida, during the terrible storm last Sunday and says the newspaper accounts of its awful force were not at all exaggerated.

Public Speaking.

Hon. R. A. Doughton and Rodolph Duffy, will speak at Wilmington, Thursday night, October 20th.

SPEAKING AT WARSAW.

Thompson Lambasted by Duffy in Joint Debate—About 100 Democrats and 100 Pops and Negroes Present.

[Special Star Telegram.]

WARSAW, N. C., October 6.—Rodolph Duffy, Esq., of Onslow, Democratic nominee for Solicitor, met Dr. Cy Thompson here to-day in joint debate and completely demolished him. As usual the doctor made his opponent speak first, and Mr. Duffy had only a few minutes for a rejoinder in which to ventilate his inconsistencies. But in this short time he so completely knocked to pieces the unblushing falsehoods of the doctor, and so held up to view his past inconsistent political life, that one felt a kind of pity for him. Duffy and Thompson are both from Onslow and Duffy knows Thompson's unenviable career as few others do.

There were about 200 people present, fifty negroes and fifty Populists, mostly leaders assembled from the furthermost parts of this and Sampson county, and about one hundred Democrats. There was a notable lack of enthusiasm from the Populists, the negroes making the most fuss. The Democrats made the welkin ring with applause as Duffy picked Thompson, unmercifully, to pieces. Thompson was so badly "hacked" that he could only find maudlin words enough to fill twenty minutes of a thirty minute rejoinder. Mr. Duffy had only thirty minutes to make final reply, but made good use of the time.

OLD ROBESON IS AROUSED.

Democratic Rally—Two Thousand Men. Two Hundred Red Shirts—Resolve That White Men Shall Rule.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RED SPRINGS, N. C., October 6.—The grand Democratic rally at Bethel Church, Blue Springs township, Robeson county took place to-day. Two thousand people were in attendance, including two hundred red shits, and a thousand men swore to hold Robeson and save the State.

The speakers were at their best and presented the facts to the people, showing the danger that threantened our homes with such force, that more than thousand men, with one determined voice, pledge this county to Democracy. Words were not minced. The speakers called a spade a spape; a rascal a rascal; a nigger a nigger. No man could misunderstand the words as given by Mr. Joe A. Brown, of Columbus, candidate for the State Senate in this district. Robeson county is afire, from border to border. The determination of the men of Robeson means much. It was expressed to-day in the words of the speaker when he said, "white men shall rule in North Carolina. We will hold Robeson and save the State."

To Move Cottages.

Mr. Thad. F. Tyler, the contractor and builder, made a [illegible] yesterday to move Mr. Cyrus VanAmringe's cottage on Wrightsville beach further back from the surf. The work will be done during next week. Mr. Tyler will carry his house-moving apparatus to the beach Monday, and he inserts an advertisement in the STAR this morning, urging all others who intend moving their cottages back to see him at once.

Hurrah For Nash County.

A correspondent of the STAR, writing from Gold Rock, N. C., says:

"We can 'hurrah' for Nash county; she is in the lead and will go Democratic by a large majority. We started out right and will end right. The Populists are coming home to their old party, except a few who want office and they have fused with the Republicans and have, as usual, endorsed negroes on the ticket."

THE STRUGGLE FOR SUPREMACY

Rocky Mount Butler and other Populist and Republican speakers pretend to believe that the race line has been drawn in this State simply as a political device to solidify the whites and carry the coming election. They know better, for they know that the negroes themselves are drawing the race line in the Republican party and demanding a division of offices with the whites, a division based on the relative strength of each race, which in some counties would practically mean about all the offices for negroes. They know, too, that never before since the enfranchisement of the negroes have they been as assertive and aggressive as now.

But assuming, as they allege, that it is a mere electioneering device, the issue is on all the same and it is now a struggle for supremacy, a struggle between the white man and the black man to determine which shall be the dominating force in the future of this State. It does not matter who made the issue or what were the motives that inspired it, this is the fact that must be apparent to every one and this is the feeling with which the white man and the black man have entered upon this test of strength.

The negroes are not strong enough to carry the State without the aid of white men, but they are strong enough to carry a considerable portion of the Eastern part of the State, and they are strong enough if they stand together to control the comparatively small number of white men who affiliate with them. Without these there would be no Republican party in North Carolina. They are the Republican party. They are now showing more disposition to control that party than they have ever shown before, and if they do not show more disposition to do it, it is for prudential reasons, because they fear that by going further they might drive white Republicans out of the party, solidify the white men and thus bring defeat upon themselves and upset the plans which some of their leaders have in view for the future.

One of these plans is to make Eastern North Carolina a thoroughly negroized section, where the negroes will be in the majority and an irresistible ruling power. Some people may profess to believe or even believe that there is no danger of that. Ten years ago it would have been very difficult to get people to believe that within the space of a few years Eastern North Carolina would be as much negroized as it is now, that counties, cities and towns would be practically ruled by negroes. The thorough negroizing of Eastern North Carolina and in time of the State is not a bit more impossible or improbable than the negroizing of these counties, towns and cities.

Hasn't it been heralded abroad that the negro enjoys more civil and political rights in North Carolina than he does in any other State in the Union?

Do not negro lecturers and writers pay North Carolina the compliment (from their standpoint) of showing the negroes more favors and of giving them a fairer chance in the race with the white man than any other State?

When he spoke in this city Prof. Booker T. Washington commended North Carolina for this, and congratulated the negroes upon the evidences of progress and prosperity he had witnessed among them in his travels in this State, and also congratulated them on their good fortune in having their lot cast in a State which gave them such opportunities and opened the way to them for such possibilities for their race. He was honest in this, and meant it well, for he was encouraging the negroes to try to improve their opportunities and advantages and better their condition, from a moral and material standpoint, without any reference to politics.

Isn't it also known that there are more negroes now holding office in this State than in any other State, South or North, or than in all the other States put together?

Isn't the logical effect of all this to convince negro aspirants to office that North Carolina is the place for them, and to convince negroes generally that they can enjoy more rights in North Carolina than anywhere else?

Being thus convinced, would it not be reasonable to expect an influx of ambitious aspirants to office, and a large influx of the people who felt that they would enjoy more rights and privileges here than elsewhere?

That's the way negroes are talking now. In a conversation with a New York man, (who stated that fact to a reporter of the New York Sun) Bishop Petty said to him that "Eastern North Carolina is the place for the negro," in which opinion the New York man was disposed to agree with him after witnessing the wide swath the negroes cut in the county of Craven.

Bishop Petty is one of the negro leaders who does not believe in negroes emigrating to Africa or to Cuba or to Porto Rico or to one of the Territories or sparsely settled Western States, but in colonizing them in some such State as North Carolina, which can be reached without much effort or expense, and where the natural conditions of climate, &c., are congenial to them.

In his opinion North Carolina, and especially Eastern North Carolina, is such a region and the ideal one, "the place for the negro." Negroes in Virginia and in South Carolina who do not like their surroundings are talking that way now, are catching on to the ideas of their leaders, and they are watching with interest the race contest for supremacy. This doubtless is one of the reasons why the Republican machine managers find it so easy to recruit voters across the borders and import them for elections, because they believe that when they help to defeat the white man's party they help themselves and help in the work of establishing a negro ruled State. If they succeed in carrying the election next month it [illegible] be a conclusive proof of their power and another proof that "Eastern North Carolina is the place for the negro," and they will come by the hundreds and thousands.

The fate of North Carolina may depend upon the ballots that are cast on the 8th day of November. Remember this, white men.

ANOTHER OBJECT LESSON.

Yesterday we published an account of the arrest of two white men in Warren county, by a negro constable and another negro deputized by him, on a warrant issued by a negro magistrate. In that connection we remarked that this was not a rare instance but that illustrations of the negro method of administering justice were numerous throughout Eastern North Carolina. Here is another sample from the negro-ridden county of Craven—city of Newbern—as sworn to by the victim, Mrs. Edith Anderson:

State of Morth Carolina, Craven County:

"Edith Anderson being duly sworn doth say: 'That she is a white woman; that a few weeks ago a warrant was sworn out against her by a negro woman before Frederick Douglass, a negro justice of the peace who before his election as Justice had been disbarred Pension Agent and indicted for fraudulent practices; that one J. P. Stanly, the negro constable of the city of New Berne procured the swearing out of said warrant for the purpose of making costs for himself and said Douglass, as affiant is informed and believes; that affiant was arrested under said warrant by said negro constable, and brought before said negro justice for trial and made affidavit for removal of the cause; that the said Douglass removed the cause to one W. H. Green, a negro justice of the peace for trial, and affidavit was carried to the office of said Green; that his office was in his barber shop which is in the negro settlement of New Berne known as the "Five Points;" that said barber shop is patronized exclusively by negroes and hair from the heads of the negro patrons of the shop was scattered over the floor; that affiant was tried by said negro justice with said negro constable acting as officer of the court and was prosecuted by a negro lawyer required to give a bond in the sum of $250 and was ordered to give the bond without being permitted to go down town to find a surety; that affiant after being held in custody of said negro constable for a long time succeeded in giving the bond and was released; that fourteen negro witnesses were summoned against her on the charge of a simple misdemeanor; that after the justice had ordered her to give the bond for her appearance at court, a proposition was made to affiant to release her and not require her appearance at court if she would pay the costs of the constable, justice of the peace and fourteen negro witnesses and negro lawyer's fee.

"'EDITH ANDERSON.

"'Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 9th day of September, 1898.

"'S. R STREET, N. P.'"

Here we have not a white man but a white woman arrested by a negro on a warrant issued by a negro and taken to a negro barber shop, where she was doubtless surrounded by negroes, prosecuted by a negro lawyer, bound to court on a $250 bond and then denied the privilege of leaving the barber shop—the tonsorial court—to seek a bondsman. If Mrs. Anderson had been black that privilege would not have been denied her, but it is hardly probable that if she had been black she would have been put under a $250 bond or any bond at all.

The offence charged is not stated in the affidavit. It is referred to as "a simple misdemeanor." It was considered so simple by the sable justice and the sable prosecuting lawyer that they offered to compromise it and discharge her if she would agree to pay the costs and the negro lawyer's fee. Without reference to the outrageous tyranny and the galling insult to white womanhood, here is another illustration of the degradation of office and mockery of justice as both are administered by the black brand of magistrates fastened upon Eastern North Carolina by the mongrel party now in power.

HERE IS "PRINCIPLE."

The Populist leaders in this State are daisies when it comes to sticking to "principles," about which they talk so much. But as illustrated in practice it is understood that "principle" must not stand in the way of office, for when it does principle doesn't count. Some of them, however, do not feel quite comfortable over the deal they made with the Republicans and find it necessary to make some sort of an excuse for it. The Raleigh Caucasian, Senator Butler's organ, in a recent issue, published the following:

"The People's party was desirous of co-operating with the Democrats in this campaign to secure a victory for the white man and the white metal, and made them a proposition to this effect, which was turned down by the Clevelandites and McKinley Democrats, who controlled the recent Democratic State Convention and captured the organization of the party."

This is rich. It is practically an admission that as a matter of choice the Populist leaders for whom the Caucasian speaks would have preferred to coalesce with the Democrats provided the Democrats came to their terms and gave them the offices they wanted. When the Democrats refused to consider such a proposition then they went to the Republicans where they found no trouble in swapping votes and in making a trade like that.

But there is a confession in this paragraph. It says the People's party wanted to co-operate with the Democratic party to "secure a victory for the white man and the white metal," but when the Democrats refused to come to their terms then they let the "victory fo ther white man and the white metal" go to the demnition bowwows and they made a bee-line for the Republican camp and agreed to throw the votes they could control against the white man, for the negro, and against the white metal, for candidates pledged to the gold standard, which is precisely what they are doing.

And yet, after a confession like this by Rocky Mount Butler's organ, these mountebanks have the monumental cheek to say that they are opposed to negro domination, that they favor a white man's government, and still believe in the white metal. For 18-carat frauds we commend the Populist office grabbers who think they can humbug sensible people with that kind of reeking rot.

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this country and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. NICKLE, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa., For sale by R. R. BELLAMY. †

Old fashions in dress may be revived, but no old-fashioned medicine can replace Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. For sale by R. R. BELLAMY. †

WIPED OUT.

What there was left of the Populist party in Georgia was practically wiped out in the election held in that State Wednesday. The Populist machine managers resorted to the dodge of nominating a farmer for Governor, trusting to this to capture the votes of farmers and the support of the Republicans, but the trick didn't pan out, and the farmers severely let Mr. Hogan alone, and voted the Democratic ticket. In some counties they fused with the negroes, as the fusionists are doing in this State, but that didn't help them either, but rather had the effect of driving Populists into the Democratic party, as it is doing in North Carolina.

In the State election in Alabama some time ago the Populist leaders met with the same fate, for there, too, what was left of the party was practically wiped out. They saved hardly enough from the wreck to identify the corpse.

In this State they are trying to keep life in the thing and hold their grip on the offices they have, by fusing with the negroes, but when the votes are counted they will find that they are quite as much discredited, as the fusionists in Georgia and Alabama were. The people see through them.

POINTS POLITICAL.

THE FAKIRS PLAYED OUT.

The fusion candidates opened their campaign at Burney's cross roads in Swift Creek township, on Saturday. We learn that there were present by actual count two Populists, twenty-five negroes and twelve Democrats, the later being there out of curiosity.—Greenville Reflector.

OPPOSED TO THE SWAP.

Fifty-three of the Populists in Iredell county have issued a call for a mass meeting of all Populists who will vote only for silver men for office. The revolt has spread almost to every county. Cy and Hal may trade off their party to vote for goldbugs here in Raleigh, but they cannot deliver the goods.—Raleigh News and Observer.

GOT A DOSE OF IT.

Of course Mr. Swinson, who was ousted from his position as enrolling clerk in the last memorable legislature because he would not allow his office to be crowded with useless clerks, negroes at that, about which the lock breaking episode was enacted, is on the stump for the Democratic ticket. No wonder. He surely got a dose of fusion nauseating enough.—Concord Standard.

BEING ABSORBED.

In Wake county as in Chatham the fusion candidate for the Senate is a Republican. This is the game that is being played all over the State. More Republicans have been added to the fusion ticket in many counties, and thus the Populist party is being gradually absorbed by the Republicans. In the last Legislature Wake's Senator was a Populist, just as was Chatham's.—Pittsboro Record.

AN IMPRESSIVE SCENE.

We received the following telephone message from Dr. Withers, at Spout Springs, Tuesday evening: "Hon. Dan Hugh McLean spoke to-day at Britton & Johnson's mill to an audience of two hundred men, women and children, Democrats Populists and Republicans. It was conceded by all present to be the best speech ever heard by them in this county. As he closed the eloquent speaker was deluged with bouquets by the ladies. It was a most impressive scene when nine men, all gray-haired from age, came forward after the speech and pledged themselves to vote for white supremacy. They had heretofore affiliated with the other parties."—Fayetteville Observer.

INCENDIARY UTTERANCES.

Geo. H. White, the Colored Congressman, Tells Colored Men to Go to the Polls With Guns.

[Raleigh Post.]

Geo. H. White, the negro Congressman of the Second district, made a speech in Northampton county a few days ago that completely discounts his rank utterances here at the Republican State convention.

A gentleman whose veracity and integrity cannot be questioned informs the Post that White counselled the negroes in his Northampton speech to get their guns and ammunition ready, and not to delay the matter. He told them not to wait until election day to do this, and to go to the polls armed and demand their rights.

A white gentleman had permitted White to speak on his land. As soon as the negro Congressman gave utterance to this incendiary language he ordered him off his premises. White was informed that he couldn't use such incendiary language on his premises.

White and his crowd of negroes then went to a school house, where he concluded his speech.

— Anxious Parent—"Doctor, my daughter appears to be going blind, and she is about to be married." Doctor—"Let her go right on with the wedding; if anything can open her eyes, marriage will."

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is best to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. Taken Up.

Judge Coffey of San Francisco is described by The News Letter of that city as having a strong disapproval of garrulity. A lawyer, he declares, should cultivate conciseness.

An attorney, learned in the law but afflicted with the disease of long windedness in a peculiarly malignant form, was neatly cut short by the tart and astute probate judge.

After pleading in a very plain case, with wearisome prolixity, the worthy attorney suddenly asked in a rhetorical vein, but with no idea of concluding his argument:

"Need I say more?"

Judge Coffey had been impatiently waiting for an opening and, perceiving his opportunity, answered quickly, but with the blandest courtesy:

"No, brother, you need say nothing more."

Before the lawyer realized the remark of the court, and while he was about to resume his oration, standing with open mouth and outstretched hand, Judge Coffey decided against him, dismissed the proceeding and called the next case on his docket.

Offensive Medicines.

Medicines of an offensive nature may often be given easily to children by getting them to chew a piece of cheese, a caraway seed or clove or suck a minute piece of alum to deaden taste for the moment merely. No fuss or first tasting or smelling should be allowed, but if necessary they must be made to take off at a gulp even the most disagreeable powder or draft. The very fortitude thus induced is good. They may learn to take pills (during the intervals at dinner) by first swallowing as amusement some made of bread. Better this than the nose pinching, struggles, screams and injurious excitement, brain and body, of ill managed children, whose repugnance to everything unpalatable is only natural. Powders should be administered from the end of a paper knife or flattened spoon bowl in order not to excite choking or vomiting.—New York Ledger.

AWFUL SLAVERY.

"There are but few who admire the collection of beautiful sulphur crystals in the National museum," remarked the gentleman who collected them from the famed sulphur mines in Sicily to a reporter, "who have any idea in relation to the same except their beauty. I don't think," he said, "that there is another spot on earth where such abominable treatment, such fiendish cruelty, is afflicted on the laborer as in the sulphur mines of Sicily. They are paid barely enough to provide themselves with a scant supply of the coarsest, cheapest food, and a good portion of the time they are in a state of chronic starvation. When I was last there, many of the mines were closed, and a Sicilian paper stated that 30,000 people were starving at the mines.

"The work is of the hardest and most exhausting character. Very few of the mines have hoisting apparatus, and the sulphur ore (sulphur and limestone combined) is brought up from the depths below on the backs of men and boys. Long, sloping, narrow tunnels lead from the surface down to the sulphur beds 200 to 600 feet or more below. Miners dig the stuff out, and it is carried up in stout sacks or flat baskets. Many of the laborers, especially the boys, work naked. On their backs they wear a piece of matting or something of the sort, held by a string around the neck. This is to protect the flesh from being torn from their bodies by the jagged corners of the ore they carry.

"No one can imagine a more heartrending sight than to see the wretched creatures toiling up the long, steep slopes in the mine with their enormous loads. Every step they take wrings a groan from their tortured frames. Most pitiful to me was the sight of the poor, bent, broken and emaciated old men, mere battered wrecks, and the young lads of 10 and 12 years who have just begun this life of cruel toil.

"Staggering along under loads full as heavy as a strong man ought to carry the dreadful procession winds upward through the narrow drifts and tunnels to the surface, where the ore is piled up in rectangular heaps and paid for by the cubic meter.

"As evidence of the awful severity of the labor is the fact that a very large percentage of these lads are so badly crippled by the time they reach the age for military service that the conscript officers are forced to reject them. And I assure you that the Italian government is not overcritical as to the physical condition of the men she sends by the shipload to Massaua to be butchered by the Abyssinians.

"When the miserable creatures leave the inferno underground and reach the surface, they find themselves in a veritable corner of hades. The sulphur is extracted at the mine by roasting it in immense heaps slightly covered with earth, not unlike in form to a charcoal pit. The air is so filled with sulphurous vapors and dust as to almost suffocate one. Not a green thing is in sight, for the poisonous vapors kill all vegetation. The fierce sun beats down upon one in those verdureless valleys with great fury. On every side there are hot rocks, acres of impalpable, stifling dust and the vapors from the calcining can only be compared to blasts from the infernal region."—Exchange.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at R. R. BELLAMY'S Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded. †

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, October 6.—The Liverpool cables at hand when the local market opened this morning just about fitted the advance made by our market yesterday and the opening was rather tame, about steady in tone and at unchanged prices to an advance of 1 point. Following the call, however, cables from Liverpool showed up in better shape and local shorts became alarmed. A local advance of 3@4 points was the result. The feature of the later cables was the increase in spot sales to 20,000 bales, resulting in an advance of 1-32d in prices. The heavy buying in the English market caused no little concern on the part of the shorts here, as it was claimed that the Englishmen were buying on fears of a bullish bureau report and frost in the cotton belt. Liquidation set in later and the advance was again lost. Trading became conservative, following private cables stating that the English flurry was over for the present. The final phases of the market reflected a confusion of ideas, with marked uncertainty regarding the probable character of the bureau report to be issued on the tenth. The market closed steady at a net loss of 2 to 4 points, having declined at the last minute under realizing.

"CONTEMPTIBLE PIE HUNTERS."

This Is What Butler Called Those Who Favored Co-Operation in 1897.

Here is what Marion Butler said in his paper, the Caucasian, in February, 1897:

"The co-operation of the Populists and Republicans in this State has been a dismal and disastrous failure. Only the contemptible pie-hunters see any good in it."

If you do not believe Marion Butler's paper said this, ask him whether it did or not. He dare not deny it.

If "co-operation" had no "good in it" in 1897, is there "any good in it" in 1898, when Negro Domination is staring us in the face?

What Marion Butler said in the Caucasian in 1897, is exactly what every decent white man in North Carolina believes now.

MORE NEGRO SCOUNDRELISM.

Black Beasts Attempt to Outrage the Young Daughter of a Respectable Farmer.

HER FATHER SWEARS TO IT.

Attacked On the Public Highway in Brunswick County While Returning From Sunday School—Her Screams Saved Her From a Fate Worse Than Death.

Joseph Gore is an honest and respectable farmer of the county of Brunswick—poor in this world's goods, but esteemed by his neighbors. He has a wife and children, and there is a church and Sunday school near his home which are attended by his family. But he lives in a township where the negroes outnumber the whites more than three to one. This, coupled with the fact, no doubt, that Brunswick county is under Republican-Fusion rule, emboldened two beastly negroes to make an attempt to outrage a young girl on the public road as narrated in the following affidavit:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
County of Brunswick.

Personally appeared before me, Geo. H. Bellamy, a Justice of the Peace for Town Creek township, Brunswick county, Joseph Gore, who, being duly sworn, states: "Some days ago my daughter, aged 15 years, was returning from Sunday School, accompanied by her little brother, aged 12 years, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. When about a quarter of a mile from home, two negro boys, aged about 16 to 18 years, ran after my daughter, with their coats turned over their heads to conceal their identity, and attempted to take hold of her, and doubtless would have placed their unholy hands on her person; and had it not been for her screams would have doubtless accomplished their purpose. This was done in Town Creek township, in broad daylight, The villains have not yet been detected.

Signed, "JOSEPH GORE."

White men of Brunswick county, can you stand that? Is there one left in the borders of your county who will not now vote against every candidate who consorts with negroes, and who is dependent on them for election? Has it come to this, that your daughters cannot attend church or Sunday school without having a body-guard to protect them from the lustful black brutes who roam through your county?

Rise in your might, white men of Brunswick. Assert your manhood. Go to the polls and help stamp out the last vestige of Republican-Populist-Negro Fusion.

A HORRID SLANDER.

The Most Infamous That Ever Appeared in Print in This State.

The Alarmed Politicians are Trying to Break the Force of it by Resorting to Various Dodges, But They are Too Thin.

The infamous assault on the white women of this State which appeared on the 18th of August in the Daily Record, the negro paper published in this city, has aroused a storm of indignation from one end of the State to the other. We have received so many requests for copies of the STAR containing this article, that we herewith reproduce it in full, the accuracy of which is certified to by Col. John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, and by a number of our well-known business men. The article is headed:

Mrs. Felton's Speech.

"A Mrs. Felton, from Georgia, makes a speech before the Agricultural Society at Tybee, Ga., in which she advocates lynching as an extreme measure. This woman makes a strong plea for wamanhood, and if the alleged crimes or rape were half so frequent as is ofttimes reported, her plea would be worthy of consideration.

"Mrs. Felton, like many other so-called Christians, loses sight of the basic principle of the religion of Christ in her plea for one class of people as against another. If a missionary spirit is essential for the uplifting of the poor white girls, why is it? The The morals of the poor white people are on a par with their colored neighbors of like conditions, and if any one doubts the statement let him visit among them. The whole lump needs to be leavened by those who profess so much religion and showing them that the preservation of virtue is an essential for the life ot any people.

"Mrs. Felton begins well for she admits that education will better protect the girls on the farm from the assaulter. This we admit and it should not be confined to the white any more than to the colored girls. The papers are filled often with reports of rapes of white women, and the subsequent lynching of the alleged rapists. The editors pour forth volleys of aspersions against all negroes because of the few who may be guilty. If the papers and speakers of the other race would condemn the commission of crime because it is crime and not try to make it appear that the negroes were the only criminals, they would find their strongest allies in the intelligent negroes themselves, and together the whites and blacks would root the evil out of both races.

"We suggest that the whites guard their women more closely, as Mrs. Felton says, thus giving no opportunity for the human fiend, be he white or black. You leave your goods out of doors and then complain because they are taken away. Poor white men are careless in the matter of protecting their women, especially on farms. They are careless of their conduct toward them and our experience among poor white people in the country teaches us that the women of that race are not any more particular in the matter of clandestine meetings with colored men, than are the white men with colored women. Meetings of this kind go on for some time until the woman's infatuation or the man's boldness, bring attention to them and the man is lynched for rape. Every negro lynched is called a 'big, burly, black brute,' when in fact many of those who have thus been dealt with had white men for their fathers, and were not only not 'black' and 'burly' but were sufficiently attractive for white girls of culture and refinement to fall in love with them as is well known to all."

"Mrs. Felton must begin at the fountain head if she wishes to purify the stream.

"Teach your men purity. Let virtue be something more than an excuse for them to intimidate and torture a helpless people. Tell your men that it is no worse for a black man to be intimate with a white woman, than for a white man to be intimate with a colored woman.

You set yourselves down as a lot of carping hypocrites; in fact you cry aloud for the virtue of your women while you seek to destroy the morality of ours. Don't think ever that your women will remain pure while you are debauching ours. You sow the seed—the harvest will come in due time"

THE AFFIDAVIT OF THE CLERK.

An effort has been made by some of the politicians to fool the people by representing that this slander was a Democratic trick or was garbled, but the following affidavit from the Clerk of the Superior Court settles the question as to its accuracy:

NORTH CAROLINA,
NEW HANOVER COUNTY.

I, John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, do hereby certify that the foregoing is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record, a paper published in the city of Wilmington, of date Aug. 18, 1898.

"I further certify that said paper has been published in said city at least eight months prior to this date; that Alex. L. Manly, the editor, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has before this held the office of Deputy Register of Deeds of New Hanover county, by appointment from Charles W. Norwood, Republican Register of Deeds, of New Hanover county.

"I further certify that John N. Goins, business manager; L. D. Manly, foreman; Jno. T. Howe, general traveling agent; and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and are known as Republicans and the said Jno. T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897. Witness my hand and seal this August 24th, 1898. JOHN D. TAYLOR.
Clerk Superior Court of New Hanover Co.

Who Manly Is.

As the Republican politicians in this county could not call this assault a Democratic trick, or say it was garbled, they tried to break the force of it by repudiating the paper as a party organ and characterizing the editor as a "simpleton" who represents no one but himself. The following affidavit from a num- of business men of Wilmington testifies to the accuracy of the published slander, tells who Manly and his associates on the Record are and shows that Manly was not regarded as a simpleton, or a nobody before he startled the bosses by the publication of that awful article:

CITIZENS TESTIFY.

B. G. Worth, of the Worth Co.; R. W. Hicks, wholesale grocer; C. E. Borden, president of Navassa Guano Co.; W. L. DeRosset, commander of N. C. Division Confederate Veterans, and John C. Springer, of the firm of W. E. Springer & Co., each being duly sworn says that he has read the foregoing paper, and that the said is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record of the date August 18th, 1898; that said paper, the Daily Record, has been published in the city of Wilmington at least eight months prior to this date, and Alex. L. Manly, the editor thereof, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has held the position of Deputy Register of Deeds in New Hanover county under the Republicans.

Affiants further say that John N. Goins, business manager, L. D. Manly, foreman, John T. Howe, general travelling agent, and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and Republicans, and the said John T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.,
Nov. 12, 1897.

H. E. Thompson, Providential, N. C.:

DEAR SIR:—A month ago you sent me a box of the Jackson Springs Water—twelve bottles. You know how fearfully I was suffering with an acute bladder trouble some weeks before. When I reached home I found the water awaiting me. I have rested and drank that water. I am a new man—my old self practically; my appetite restored; and the tenderness in the bladder has disappeared. I think it is a wonderful water. I had been using for weeks before all sorts of lithia water, but the Jackson Springs Water went to the spot.

With profound gratitude, I am,
Yours, Respectfully, &c.,
CALVIN S. BLACKWELL.

The Doctor further says, it is "the best, I think, God has let run out of the earth for afflicted humanity."

This Water is unsurpassed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Insomnia, Nervous Prostration, or any Kidney, Bladder or Stomach Trouble.

WILMINGTON, N. C.
FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 7, 1898.

NEWS FROM RALEIGH.

A. C. Cowles' Appointment—The Campaign in Wake—Democrats to Begin Canvass Monday.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

RALEIGH, N. C., October 6.

Otho Wilson has received a letter from Senator Pritchard, saying that the Secretary of War has granted an honorable discharge to his son, Needham Wilson, who is a private in Company K, First regiment. Otho has been working night and day lately to get his son out.

The sharper, William Chambers, who got in his work on a Raleigh firm, was arrested in Norfolk, brought here to-day and sent to jail in default of a $250 justified bond.

Senator Butler speaks at Louisburg to-day, and to-morrow Butler and Thompson will orate here.

Between 300 and 400 members of the Second regiment are now here. Nearly every day others return, having grown tired of loafing at home.

The Democratic candidates begin their county canvass next Monday. The fusionists are having smaller crowds than they did two years ago. The sole efforts of the fusionists seems to be to get the Populists back in line and a hard job they are finding it.

[Special Star Telegram.]

Senator Pritchard has agreed to recommend Raleigh for the location of one of the winter camps for troops.

The appointment of A. B. Cowles as his brother's successor, as Lieutenant Colonel of the First regiment, was the condition on which the Second regiment will be mustered out.

CONDITIONS IN CUBA.

Hon. Robt. P. Porter Tells of His Tour of the Island—Poor Prospects for Crops.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, October 6.—Among the passenger on board the Ward line steamer Saratoga from Havana was Hon. Robert P. Porter.

Mr. Porter said: "I was sent to Cuba to collect information on financial and economic subjects in order that the President would have access to such material in time to consider their bearing before preparing his message to Congress. I have been given every opportunity to collect such information. We have examined over 150 persons and have been able to collect considerable material which will have a direct bearing on the tariff questions. The Cubans have given every facility possible to help me."

Mr. Porter said in reference to political questions:

"At the present time I am in favor of admitting cattle into Cuba free. The condition of the country people is very distressing. The rainy season is almost over and it is imperative that the crops for the present year be planted at once or else they will be put off for some time. To work the fields the people need cattle which are very scarce.

"One of the most important subjects that came up was the tariff on tobacco. The Cubans claim that their tobacco is the best in the world and assert that its quality and value will be impaired by adulteration if tobacco from this country is admitted into Cuba. They want us to forbid the entry of our tobacco into the island, and strange as it my seem they are asking us to discriminate against our own product."

TWO GALLANT OFFICERS

Among the Killed in the Fight Between U. S. Troops and Indians in Minnesota.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 6.—Major M. C. Wilkinson and Mr. Sheehan, who are among the killed in the fight with the Pillager Indians, were well known in Washington. Major Wilkinson was a volunteer in the civil war, served throughout that conflict and received on its close a commission in the regular army. He had participated in several Indian campaigns since the civil war. His regiment was stationed at Fort Snelling for twelve years, and was dispatched to Santiago at the opening of the war, but he was left at the fort on recruiting service. He was 60 years of age and his family are at Red Lands, near San Bernardino, California, where he had for two years been building an orange farm, with a view to spending his closing years there.

T. J. Sheehan was captain in the Fifth Minnesota during the civil war and participated in the Sioux Indian massacre in 1862, when he was placed in command of Fort Ridgeley on the frontier. There, with a total force of about 125 men, he withstood for two days the attack and siege of over 1,000 Indians, finally repulsing them, saving the lives of his command. For twenty years after the close of the rebellion he was sheriff at Freedom county, Minn., and laterly had been deputy marshal. He was about 65 years old and married.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

HAVANA, October 6, 3 P. M.—A dispatch received this morning from Manzanillo announces the arrival there of the steamer Reina de Los Angeles, flying the stars and stripes, with Colonel Henry Ray and four hundred United States troops. Colonel Ray will receive possession of the city to-morrow.

Last evening Mrs. Sampson, wife of Admiral Sampson, was visited at her cottage, at El Vodade, by a deputation of ladies representing the best Havana society, who welcomed her to Havana.

The Spanish commissioners, yesterday, officially notified the American commissioners, that owing to a hurricane, the vessels which were sent to Manzanillo have been unable to reach there at the appointed time, which will delay the evacuation of that place by the Spanish troops.

GEN. LEE TESTIFIES AS TO THE CAMPS.

Gen. Boynton Says No Complaints Have Come from Southern Soldiers.

LEE READY TO GO TO CUBA.

Has Been Notified That He Would be Expected to Move His Corps to the Vicinity of Havana About the First of November.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 6.—The War Investigating commission held two sessions to-day. In the forenoon General H. V. Boynton concluded his testimony which he had begun yesterday and General Fitzhugh Lee was heard in the afternoon. General Boynton dwelt to-day upon the causes of disease at Camp Thomas, charging the increase toward the close of the campaign to the lack of sufficient care on the part of the regimental and brigade commanders in covering the sinks.

In discussing with Captain Howell the question of rations, supplied to Camp Thomas, General Boynton volunteered the suggestion that there had been no complaints from Southern soldiers in the camp, "and," he continued, "I do not believe we would have heard half the outcry that has been raised if all the soldiers had been from the South."

General Dodge said that only two or three charges had been received from the South and they were not from soldiers.

Gen. Lee's Testimony.

General Lee had no complaint to make in regard to the supplies. In June while the expeditions at Tampa were being gotten off, there was some delay but this was natural, and since then, supplies of all kinds had come with regularity and in abundance.

"There have, of course," he said, "been some complaints. Soldiers are like school boys; they some times complain even when there is no occasion for complaint." He thought the army ration was abundant and in the main well suited to a campaign in a tropical climate. Yet he thought some changes might be made. He was of the opinion that it would be better to send live animals to Cuba than to send refrigerator meat as at present. According to his ideas, the men should have more fruit and less meat.

Ready to Go to Cuba.

During the course of the questioning it developed that General Lee had been notified that he would be expected to move his corps to Cuba in the vicinity of Havana about the first of November and that he considered his troops properly equipped for the campaign.

He considers the Spanish uniforms the better adapted to a tropical climate than ours, as they were cool and could be washed. He was fearful that the shirts and blouses of our men would be found to be too heavy for comfort.

General Lee made the significant announcement that he was counting upon landing in a friendly country, as he had received direct information that the American troops would be welcomed not only by the Cubans, but by the Spaniards as well. He said the conservative and property owning Spaniards were especially desirous to have the American troops come for the preservation of order.

Speaking of his command General Lee stated that the health of the troops had been good, only about 2 per cent. being sick. He had insisted upon a very thorough inspection of the camp and upon having his forces thoroughly instructed by the staff officers, who had practically organized schools for that purpose.

He said the meat was received in refrigerator cars, and that as a rule it was good. In a few instances the outer edges of the large pieces of meat were spoiled, as was also the hard-tack, in one or two cases. A shipment of potatoes was reported to be in bad condition, and a board was appointed which condemned all the goods.

Volunteer Officers.

As to the efficiency of officers appointed from civil life, General Lee said some of them learned their duties very promptly; others were very slow to learn; others never learned, but a majority did. He believes that volunteers would always become effective, especially when confronted by the enemy.

Governor Beaver read a letter complaining of the situation in the Jacksonville camp. The letter stated the camp was filthy, the bread moulded, the doctors generally drunk, etc.

"Is that from my command," Gen. Lee asked, in evident surprise. When informed that it was, he was astonished and asked for the name of the author. He said in this connection that occasional complaints had come to him, which he examined and in every case found them to be defective.

"Then," said Governor Beaver, after some further questioning, "you consider yourself in good condition in every way to start on the expedition to Cuba." "I do," replied General Lee. "Touch a button and we are prepared, even to go to Madrid."

He expressed the opinion that it was impossible for any foreign troops to do any great amount of campaigning in the Summer months on account of the [illegible] even the Spanish and Cuban forces had ever been very active in the Summer season. He thought troops going to Cuba should have ample protection against the sun.

Regimental Surgeons.

Complaints against regimental surgeons were read to the general from members of the Fourth Virginia volunteers, but he replied that he could not speak definitely of the regimental doctors in this case. Some of them he knew were not as competent as they should be. The surgeons of higher rank were all competent men.

General Lee expressed the belief that division hospitals were too large. He advocated brigade hospitals as a compromise between the division and regimental hospials. He expressed the opinion that the site of the camp at Jacksonville was well selected.

Captain Howell asked General Lee if he considered that he had been side-tracked in the campaign. "I don't think so," he replied. "I have from time to time seen something in the newspapers to the effect that it was not the intention of the authorities that I should have an opportunity for active participation in the campaign. I, of course, had no claim to go to Santiago or to Porto Rico, as other officers in the army ranked me. It was always the understanding that my corps was organized for the Havana campaign. I had some ambition to go there, because I had not been allowed to stay while I was there. I wanted to go back with some men and show our enemies that I could stay."

He continued by saying that the President had told him within the past few days that he had always intended to send him to Havana and in case there had been an assault upon the city that he should lead it.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH TRIENNIAL COUNCIL.

House of Delegates Rejects Proposed Amendments to the Constitution Adopted by House of Bishops.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 6.—Morning prayers for the delegates to the Triennial Convention of the Episcopal Church was held at the Church of the Epiphany. When the larger portion of the delegates had assembled Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix, the president, called the second day's session of the House of Deputies to order. Preliminary routine business occupied the time of the house for an hour.

Rev. Dr. Mann, of Missouri, offered a resolution naming Kansas City as the next meeting place of the convention.

From Indiana came a resolution expressing the earnest desire of the convention that the instructions to the commissioners to be appointed to the international peace conference proposed by the Czar of Russia shall recommend the establishment of a permanent court for the settlement of all differences by arbitration.

The communication received yesterday from Felix Agoncillo, the representative of Aguinaldo, now in this city, was read. The document expressed the esteem of the Filipinos for the convention and asked the prayers of the Church in behalf of the Filipinos.

The amendments acted upon were those adopted by both houses of the general convention in 1895, which require ratification by the next subsequent convention to become operative. The first of these affected the question of a heading or title for the constitution, canons, etc., of the church, and provided it should be as follows: "Constitution and canons for the government of that portion of the Catholic Church known in law as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America," etc.

The amendment was defeated by a vote of 108 nays to three yeas. The next amendment which contemplated the substitution of article 1 for articles 1, 2 and 3 of the old constitution and which was adopted unanimously by the last convention, was also defeated by a vote of 92 to 17.

Meantime messages had been received from the House of Bishops that they had adopted both the amendments rejected by the House, but in each case a motion was made in the deputies that they refuse to concur in the action of the bishops, and that body was so informed.

In the House of Bishops most of the time was consumed in the action on the amendments to the constitution already referred to.

EMPEROR OF CHINA

Reported Death and Assassination Discredited in Washington.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 6.—Such information as has reached the State Department here respecting the reported death and assassination of the Emperor of China goes to entirely discredit the stories that he has been poisoned or that he is dead. It is not possible to say positively just what sources of information are available, but it is known that they are regarded at entirely reliable at the State Department.

Moreover, the situation generally in China is not believed by the Department officials to be as serious as represented and a signal mark of confidence is the decision not to follow the course of certain European governments in sending at this time a force of soldiers or marines to Pekin.

SUFFERING IN CUBA.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, October 6.—The members of the Cuban Junta here are much concerned about the stories of suffering from lack of food received by them from the Cuban army. Letters have come which state that the condition of the army and of the rural population in Cuba is now worse than it has been even during the continuance of the war. The Junta officials here maintain that the course adopted by the Spanish is resulting effectually in causing death to the Cuban insurgents and pacificos as did the policy of reconcentration and extermination adopted by Weyler.

FIGHTING INDIANS IN MINNESOTA.

U. S. Troops So Far Seem to Have Had the Worst of the First Battle.

SITUATION VERY SERIOUS.

Maj. Wilkinson, a Sergeant and Three Privates Killed and Eight Wounded. Not More Than Four Indians Killed and Four Wounded.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ST. PAUL, MINN., October 6.—A Walker, Minn., special to the Dispatch says:

"A boat from the scene of action has just arrived. Fighting is still progressing. Major Wilkinson, one sergeant and three privates were killed and eight wounded. Kay Bay Gway Tish, chief of Indian police, was killed. It was impossible to bring the wounded to town for the Indians kept up a constant fire on the boat. A special train with 200 additional soldiers will arrive here at two P. M., when they will be transferred to the scene of action as soon as possible. Not more than four Indians have been killed and only two wounded. Captain Sheehan, head deputy United States marshal, arrived on the boat with a flesh wound in the abdomen and one in the right arm. He says the Pillagers do not number more than 100, but they fight only as demoniacal savages can. Unless overpowered by superior numbers, not one of them will quit fighting while he has any breath in his carcass. They are holding out now with the hope that the Cash Lake Indians will soon arrive to their assistance. If they should arrive before our troops are reinforced the soldiers will have a desperate time of it. After the reinforcements get here it will take two hours to embark them and two hours more for them to get to Sugar Point; therefore, the best that can be expected is that they will not be able to render much assistance, except as to the force of numbers, until daylight Friday. The newspaper correspondents are all right."

Captain Wilkinson's Death.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., October 6.—The Journal's special from Walker says: "Captain Wilkinson was shot through the leg, and he had his leg dressed, took the field again and was shortly afterward shot through the body. He raised himself on one elbow and shouted to General Bacon, 'Give them hell, General; never mind about me.' These were the last words of a true soldier."

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., October 6.—A Journal, Walker, Minn., special says: The pilot box of the Flora was armored with sheet iron before she pulled out this morning. Several shots fired with Winchesters at close range penetrated it, but at long range the plating will afford protection. The boat will meet with a hot fire at Squaw Point, half way through the narrows. There is no other way. I believe there will be twenty or thirty Indians at this place all day today. It would not be surprising if Dr. Camp's outfit landed and wiped them out.

Reinforcements En Route.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., October 6.—A special train left Fort Snelling this morning with Companies B, F and H. under command of Lieutenant Colonel Harbach, of the Third infantry. It will be rushed to the front, but cannot reach Walker before 2 o'clock under the most favorable conditions.

There are two hundred picked men in the detachment and they have three days rations and an abundance of ammunition. A Gatling gun is part of the equipment and further reinforcements will be kept ready to start at an instant's notice. A car was attached by the Northern Pacific for the use of the newspaper correspondents. Additional representatives were sent by the Twin City papers.

WASHINGTON, October 6.—Up to the close of office hours the Interior Department had received no advices of a positive and reliable official character, and this fact caused much embarrassment. General dispatches were received, but the only one at all definite was one which reached Secretary Bliss at 2.30. It was very brief and said Major Wilkinson and five other soldiers and one Indian policeman had been killed, and eight privates and one Indian policeman wounded. It came from Inspector Tinker, and promised particulars later. The inspector has been urgently wired to telegraph fuller details. In his dispatch he stated that the two hundred troops on the way to the battlefield are not enough. The War Department has ordered additional troops to start immediately.

Awaiting Reinforcements.

WASHINGTON, October 6.—Up to 10 o'clock to-night there has been no information received by the War Department from General Bacon. During the evening, however, the department received from the general's adjutant, now at St. Paul, the following telegram, giving a summary of conditions as far as that officer was able to obtain them:

"Adjutant General, Washington.—In answer to a telegram to the United States marshal at Walker, Miss., have received reply giving location of Gen. Bacon on main land, southwest corner Leech Lake, and saying: 'Commenced fighting at 11.30 yesterday. Indians seemed to have the best position. Not moving. Major Wilkinson, five soldiers and two Indian police killed. Awaiting reinforcements.'"

Still Fighting.

SLOCOMB-M'DANIEL.

Happy Marriage Celebrated at High Noon Wednesday In St. Timothy's Church, Wilson.

[Wilson Advance.]

At high noon to day Miss Chandler McDaniel and Mr. Paul R. Slocomb, of Wilmington, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at St. Timothy's church, the Rev. Thomas Bell performing the beautiful marriage ceremony.

The bride entered with the maid of honor, Miss Sallie Herring, of Wilson, while the organ pealed forth its beautiful notes. Mr. Slocomb entered on the arm of his best man, Mr. W. H. Slocomb, Jr., the brother of the groom. Messrs. W. T. Clark and Jas. B. Rountree, of Wilson, and Jno. Gorham and F. W. Slocomb, of Fayetteville, gracefully filled the duties of ushers.

The bridal party left the church and proceeded to the home of the bride's parents to partake of a sumptuous wedding breakfast, and then left for Fayetteville, the home of the groom's parents, from whence they will proceed on an extended tour in the South and will on their return make Wilmington their permanent home.

We can only add that Wilmington's gain will be Wilson's loss, as the bride is one of the most popular young ladies of our town. We wish the newly wedded and happy couple a continuous and long life of happiness.

SYRUP OF FIGS
NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS

is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

A Golden Opportunity for Those Who Think O. H. Dockery Will be Elected to Congress.

For the special benefit of Republican financiers, the editor of the STAR is authorized to offer the following opportunities:

One Hundred Dollars that John D. Bellamy will carry the county of Mecklenburg.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will carry the county of Union.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will carry the county of Anson.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will be elected.

All the above propositions to be accepted as a whole.

As Martin, the Fusion candidate for Congress in 1896, carried all of the nine counties in the Sixth District, except Anson—and lost that by only 110 majority—and had a majority in the District of 5,006, the above propositions should receive the favorable consideration of Republican investors.
